RUSINESS MEN TO CONSIDER THE QUESTION NEXT THURSDAY.

A Mass Meeting to be Held at the Chamber of Commerce Building To Free the Y. M. C. A. from Debt.

When Rev. John K. Mason made his usual announcement to the congregation of St. James Episcopal church at the beginning of the services on Sunday morning, he read a circular letter, copies of which had been sent to all the ministers in this city who are in sympathy with the work done by the Young Men's Christian Association as an adjunct to the church. The contents of the circular letter were as follows:

At a meeting of the pastors of the city of Richmond, held in the partor of the Young Men's Christian-Association building, on Thursday evening, April 12th, to consider the condition and needs of the Association, the Yollowing facts were

First. The Young Men's Christian Association of this city finds itself burdened with a debt of $18,000, $12,000 a mortgage, nd $5,000 floating indebtedness.

Second. The board of directors have ome to the decision that this indebt decision must be provided for or the work of the Association must necessarily dis-

Third. Facts were presented to the members of this meeting showing the very large work the Association has done the past year, and one and all who were present fully realized the value of this organization as an adjunct to the church, and agreed that an effort should be made to liquidate the indebtedness.

BOW TO LIFT THE BURDEN. Fourth. It was then suggested that the pastors of the city co-operate in a plan for lifting this burden, and upon motion, the following plan was unanimously agreed upon:

(i). That on Sunday, April 15th, either morning or evening, the condition and needs, and facts concerning the work of the Association be presented by each of the Association be presented by each and every pastor present, to his respective congregation; and that, if possible, he preach a sermon in regard to the needs of young men and the value of the Young Men's Christian Association as an agency for reaching them.

(4). That the pastors be present as well, at this meeting.

(5). That one and all make this present work the subject of prayer.

In order that you may co-operate with us we enclose date concerning the work of the Association. Please kindly notify Mr. Tibbitts, on Menday the 16th, what action was taken by yourself on Sunday and send us as full a list as possible of names of persons who might be induced a contribute.

HOW TO FIGHT SIN.

How to Fight six.

Mr. Mason selected as his text Math. x. 34: "Think not that I am come to send peace on carth; I came not to send peace, but a sword."

"This text." he said. "lays a duty upon God's people and shows the attitude which we should have towards sin, if we want to be true to God, true to our fellowmen, and true to ourselves. The example set by the Lord Jesus Christ has been misunderstood and misrepresented by a great many. He does not hate the sinner. His heart is burning with compassion for them, and He is longing to bring salvation even to the hardest sinner that walks this earth. The Lord does not hate the sinner, but He does hate sin; He does not hate the wrong-doer, but He hates the wrong.

hates the wrong.

"If a pure, upright man goes to live among a sot of men who are the opposite, this naturally will bring on a conflict. If Jesus Christ is opposed to sin, and we do not come to Him to help Him in opposing sin, we are opposed to Him and against holiness. Christ makes no compromise with sin, and the people of God cannot simply commit themselves to the fact that they discountenance sin, but fact that they discountenance sin, but they must actually oppose it wherever they see it. When you step over the threshold of a bar-room, you lay off the armor of the Lord, and you forget under whose leadership you are.

whose leadership you are.

"When the Lord wanted to raise up a man to fight the world and sin, He did not select a meek and gentle man like St. John, but He picked out a warlike man like Paul. The only figures the latternantic programme is particle his enjsties are figures. ter uses in writing his episties are figures of warfare. No man would dare to ask you to go into a bar-room and drink with he knows you have the right kind

Some men differ in their methods from me, but if they fight against sin and de-arroy its power, then they are my breth-ren, and I rejoice in every one who strikes a death-blow at sin."

HIRMINGHAM, ALA., April 16.—To-day's developments in the miners' strike show that every mine in the district except those at Warrior and in Tuscaloosa and Walker county are shut down, fully 7,000 men being out.

No attempt has been made to put in negro labor at Blue Creek Mines, where trouble is threatened. Armed deputy sheriffs were on hand, but the negroes refused to work, fearing violence from the strikers. The strike is growing, and the situation is becoming more serious.

Oranges are absurdly cheap in Florida now, and part of the crop was not picked for market because of the small demand. The mechanics of northern cities are, in good times, large consumers of oranges, but this season hard times have made the fruit a luxury, and the rigid economy of workingmen has been disastrously felt all over the orange-growing regions of this country.

NEW YORK, April 16.—There were but two stocks that figured to any extent in the stock market to-day—namely. American Sugar and Chicago Gas. Sugar held the attention of operators in the first half of the day, but subsequently it was supplanted by Chicago Gas, which completely eclipsed the first named. In the early trading Sugar rose 2% to 20%, and the preferred up 1% to 16, while the other prominant issues advanced about 1% per cent. or so on limited trading. Lackawanna was an exception, selling up 1% to 106%. After midday Chicago Gas forged to the front, and under heavy purchases rose to 61% 265%. The improvement in Sugar was again due to Washington reports that the company will receive the protection it asks, and the rise in Chicago Gas was the result of Chicago rumors that the Attorney-General had decided the quo warranto case in favor of the company. It is perhaps needless to add that neither of these rumors could be confirmed. The transactions in Sugar were 46,400 shares, and in Chicago Gas, 83,100 shares, in a grand total of 220,518 shares. So far as the rallway list is concerned, it may be said that the tendency was downward and that the pyrotechnies in the Industrials were accepted as meaning that somebody was trying to make the stock. At any rate, railway shares were weaker in the last hour of business than for some days past, althoush the pressure to sell was not pronounced. Chicago Gas receded to 63% in the late trading. Compared with Saturday's linals, the railway list shows losses of 1/201 per cent. Chicago Gas, however, gained 21% per cent. Railway and miscellaneous bonds were strong. Sales-Listed, 16,000 shares; sub-Treasury Balances—Coin, $103,128,-000; currency, $30,080,000.

Money on call casy at 1 per cent., last loan at 1 per cent., bar allver, 63%. Sterling exchange firm, with actual business in bankers bills at 4874,0487½ for sixty days. Government bonds quiet. State bonds dull. Railroad bonds irregular. Silver at the board was neglected.

CHICAGO, ILL., April 16.—For the greater part of the session in the wheat market to-day prices were dominated by bearish news, but along towards the close the effect began to wear off, and at the end prices were hard, having gadned 14c. Irom the lowest point, the net appreciation over Saturday's close, however, being but 4c. The sentiment among traders was decidedly bearish, and no caution was used by short sellers. There was likewise pienty of liquidating sales of the May option. When the price of May reached 504c, there was some steadiness shown, and values gradually recovered and became steady. The bears found they had oversold the market, and from that time until the close great eagerness to cover, with a paucity of offerings, was noted.

Corn—This market gave evidence of strong buying. The gossip was to the effect that a pronounced local operator identified with the long side was quietly absolving the offerings. Even when wheat was weak, the support to corn was apparent.

Oats—This market was merely a side issue of corn. The cue as to fluctuations was derived from that grain. There was no independent feature, and the close for May was unchanged from Saturday at 32%c., the top price of the day. Provisions were very strong to-day. Receipts were moderate and the shipments good.

FITZGERALD.—Died, in St. Louis, Mo., April 1, 1894, DAVID D. FITZGERALD, formerly of Manchester, Va., aged forty-two years.

JONES.—Died, Tuesday, March 27, 1894, at six minutes past 3 o'clock P. M., at his residence, No. 807 Brooke avenue, Richmond, Va., Mr. HARVEY F. JONES, in the sixty-seventh year of his age.

He leaves a wife and six children to mourn their loss.

In a report made by George P. And to the United States Geological Survey (not yet in print) an interesting account is given of an experiment made at Chicago during the World's Fair in determining the character of what appeared to be a diamond carbon found in a meteorite by Professor George A. Koenig, of the University of Pennsylvania. Professor A. E. Poote, of Philadelphia, obtained a piece of meteorite from Canon Diabio, Arizona, in 1891. He sent it to Professor Koenig for examination. The piece weighed about sixteen pounds. When an attempt was made to cut it, it was found to be remarkably hard. The edge of a half-inch chisel was repeatedly broken by it. One spot in particular was so hard that the tools produced a black powder instead of chips. When the meteorite was being cut, an attempt was made to One spot in particular was so hard that the tools produced a black powder instead of chips. When the meteorite was being cut, an attempt was made to polish the sections on an emery wheel. The emery wheel was rained. Diamonds had been noted previously in Russian meteoric stones, and Professor Koenis pronounced the black particles from this Arizona meteorite to be diamond. The particles of this substance obtained were so minute that the ordinary chemical tests could not be applied to them; but Mr. Kunz suggested at the meeting of the Academy of Arts and Sciences that if enough clear grains could be obtained to polish a diamond, the nature of the substance could be definitely determined. About two hundred pounds of the meteoric from was examined, and specimens which appeared to contain diamonds were dissolved. The exhibit of diamond-cutting in the mining building of the World's Fair gave the opportunity for trying the experiment, and Tiffany & Company made preparations for the test. A diamond-polishing wheel was specially planed flown, and prepared with radiating scratches so as to be easily charged with diamond powder. The wheel was run at 2,500 revolutions to the minute, and a dlamond was tried on it for five minutes without any polish resulting. The wheel was then charged with the meteorite powder mixed with the meteorite powder mixed with oil. As soon as the diamond was placed on the wheel a hissing noise showed that it was being cut. In three minutes one face of the diamond was polished. After a series of experiments with this powder, Mr. Kunz says he is satisfied that it is diamond, "or a substance with the same hardness, color, lustre, and brilliancy."

This experiment is interesting only as showing one of the queer freaks of brilliancy."

This experiment is interesting only as showing one of the queer freaks of nature. Why a meteorite should be charged with diamond-dust is no more apparent than is the reason for the discovery of a single diamond in a Kentucky field. There has been but one diamond discovery in Kentucky, though certain sections of the State have been studied minutely with a view to probable development of diamond mines. The cianond in the Phitted States is almost as great a freak as the diamond-dust in the meteorite.—From Harper's Weekin the meteorite.-From Harper's Week-
